

Act Together Crisis Care of Youth Focus presents

The National Runaway Prevention Month Multimedia Art Contest!

November is National Runaway Prevention Month and we want your help raising awareness about youth runaway issues!

Please submit essays, short stories, poetry, photography, music, video, or visual art that represents:

- problems runaways might face
- conflicts that may cause kids to runaway
- alternate ways to resolve those conflicts

Due date for submission is Nov. 21st See the front desk for a submission sheet or go to www.youthfocus.org

Winning pieces will be posted on the SafePlace Greensboro  page on Nov 30th and there will be 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes for both written and visual categories.

For more information about runaway issues visit The National Runaway Switchboard's website www.1800RUNAWAY.org and be sure to Thank you for helping to raise awareness about the issues facing runaways. Between 1.6 and 2.8 million youth run away annually. When a youth runs away everyone in the community is impacted and it is only together that we can effectively reach out to those in crisis and give them the support they need to stay safe and off the streets.

Please mail the following form with your submission to:
